I'm Back

First of all I must apologise for the delay in getting any Newsletters out. I have been very inconsiderate and been away on holiday to New Zealand for three weeks, then California for a week and then needed a rest to recover from my holiday and took another week off to stay in Liverpool with the family. It's a hard life!!! Anyway, I am back now so things should get back to normal, before I book my next holiday.

I did manage to get the odd e-mail out to keep those who are in the 21st century up to date with a few bits. As I have said before, if you are not receiving e-mails it means I have not got your address. E-mail is the best way to be kept up to date and get news out to members quickly so if you are on e-mail drop me a line and I will add you to the mailing list.

Thanks to those who have sent me some pics as it makes the Newsletter a bit more colourful. Any stories, pics, dits etc. are always welcome.

Grant and Jack and their amazing snowman named

AGM

Here is the first reminder for you to keep your diaries free for our usual AGM on the first Saturday of June, which this year falls on the 5th. This goes out particularly to Andy Maxwell who knows when the AGM is but usually manages to book something else for that weekend. Those who do usually attend will tell you it is a good event with good (free) food and lots of raffle prizes, not to mention good company to discuss the season's events with and talk about the hopes for next season. Seriously though, if you have not attended before it is worth the effort.

Merchandise

Don't forget we have our new Club badges. The new badges are larger than the last badges we had made which were 10mm diameter. The new badges are 25mm and come in four colour variations, although we only had 25 of each made. The pink ones have proved very popular with half being sold already and we will not be getting any more of this colour made, so get your order in now.

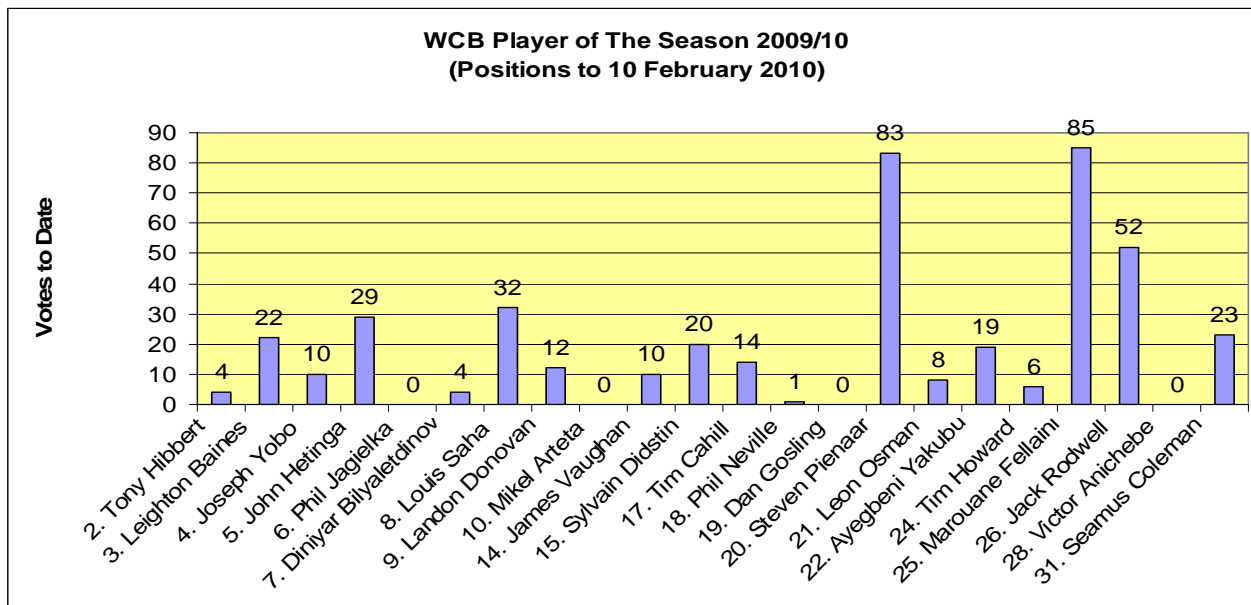

Although there have also been queries as to whether we can get some more Westcountry Blues Polo Shirts made there has not been enough interest to carry this forward so it unfortunately has to go onto the back burner. Maybe it is because Ronnie asked for the money up front as he was left with eight after the last order from members who failed to pay!!!

Player of the Season (so far)

Below is the chart showing how the voting is going for the Westcountry Blues “Player of the Season”. As you can see Ian’s favourite player, Marouane Fellaini, is currently just in the lead. Sadly we will never know if he would have stayed there until the end of the season due to the devastating injury he received from the Red S!#!*’s Sotirios Kyrgiakos

10 Year Badge

Come on people, you were asked for some ideas for a 10 year enamel badge design to celebrate the Westcountry Blues reaching their first decade as a Supporters Club for the 2010/11 season. So far we have received “0” ideas. The drawings do not have to be anything special, you come up with the design and Ronnie will do something with it on his computer.
